Teaching Staff

Faculty titles for 2008–10 were verified as of June 30, 2008, and subsequent changes may not be reflected in the following list. Please note that inclusion in this list is not a guarantee that the faculty member will be teaching throughout the 2008–10 academic years. In addition, some faculty listed here as emeriti may be recalled to teach courses.

The listing for most faculty members includes college membership, year of arrival at UC Santa Cruz, academic title, degrees, and former affiliations.

Facing page: Associate professor of anthropology Nathaniel Dominy's research explores the diet of hominins—the early human ancestors who lived 2 million years ago. His work is at the center of one of the hottest subjects in physical anthropology, because researchers now believe it was a nutritional jackpot that gave our forebears a major advantage over all other primates, fueling the development of bipedalism and big brains.
